

STANLEY L. BUCKLEY

June 19, 1975

Dear Stanley:

Glad to get your letter and to know you are thinking of what I am looking for.

You say there are people who have had or seen the Jefferson County Jail tokens. For your information, I have two other collector friends that collect prison and jail tokens and we will buy all that you can find for our collections or for trading. Personally I will pay $5.00 to $10.00 depending on condition for each one.

Also it would be interesting to us to find out when they were in use, each denomination they had, when discontinued, etc. We always try to do research on any we find. Occasionally I write an article for TAMS on these things. You will remember I did an article on Mississippi State Penitentiary. So any information you can gather will also be welcome.

Thanks again for your letter. And don't forget the CCC tokens. Am getting a lot of rubbings but not many for sale.

Regards,

8 Dear Mr. Buckley:

9 Received your letter and glad to know the 10 CCC tokens are on their way.

11 I think you are going to enjoy your retire-12 ment, and becoming a dealer in tokens will be a 13 nice way to kwwp busy. I retired last year after 14 42 years in Federal Court as a court reporter, and 15 am having the time of my life doing everything I 16 always wanted to. Only wish I had done it sooner.

17 Being a member of METCA you can take advantage 18 of their free ads and also being able to use them 19 for mail auctions, as no doubt you have noticed.
20 Also think you should look into joining TAMS, if you 21 do not belong already. It is the best token organ-22 ization I know of.

23 Regarding the rubbings you sent me, I have the 24 Sing Sing Five and the 1 Jail. I do not have the 25 5 Jail. Now these are mavericks, there is no way 26 of knowing what they are, and as a result they are not sought after. Now I have some good prison duplicates and would be pleased to trade you for the 5 Jail. I have tokens from Mississippi State Penitentiary, other Sing Sing tokens, Arkansas State prison and many others. These are all desirable tokens to collectors. Let me know if you want to trade.

Have narrowed my collecting interests and will be going through my other tokens soon and am sure I will have some to dispose of. Will be in touch.

Regards,

Dear Stanley:

Received the 5¢ Jail token and am trading you a 5¢ Mississippi State Penitentiary for it. Am also enclosing a short article I wrote for TAMS relating to them. These are quite scarce; in fact, I have not seen any since I acquired mine several years ago. I do have some duplicates of the 5¢ (as enclosed) and if you find any one interested in one, will be glad to sell you a couple. I picked them up at $5.00 each and can let you have a couple for the same price. See if you can find somebody interested in them and then let me know. I also have some Cummins State Farm and Tucker State Farm (Arkansas) that I got for $3.00 each. I have both the 5¢ aluminum and 5¢ brass, from both places.

Will keep you in mind when I go through my stuff and write more about it. Am working on my income tax, and will be going to the Token Jamboree in San Jose in April, also do some visiting with relatives while up north. So don't expect to get to them before end of April.

I realize that third class mail is slow and it is the only way to send insured mail, so I am patient with anybody that has to use it. Am sure the CCC tokens will be a long any day now.

7 Dear Stanley:

8 One thing I forgot to mention in my last 9 letter so am doing it now.

10 At the San Jose Token Jamboree a dealer had 11 a prison token from Kentucky, but since it was in 12 his own private collection he did not want to sell 13 it. However, he made a rubbing for me so I can have 14 it as a reference.

15 Anyway, I have copied it as best I can on the 16 bottom of the page. It is the approximate size and 17 printing.

18 Since you are in Kentucky and perhaps know your 19 way about the state, do you think you can get some 20 for me. And if there are other denominations, I would 21 like them too.

22 But in any event, would like to know the history 23 of them, when they were used, what denominations, when 24 if they were, were they discontinued, etc. It might 25 make an interesting story for TAMS. Would appreciate 26 your finding out all about them that you can.

Dear Stanley:

Am enlisting your help in trying to run down a set of Jefferson County Jail (Kentucky) tokens. Am enclosing a rubbing of the 1¢ aluminum, which I have, and I ran across a collector in San Jose who has a 5¢ brass. I don't know if there are any other denominations. But Jefferson County being in Kentucky, and you no doubt being acquainted with collectors of Kentucky tokens, am sure you can find out.

Needless to say, should you run across any of them, even a 1¢, I would like to acquire them.

Nothing else new.

Regards,

Hi Agnar

I guess you think I forgot about your letter on the Jefferson county fair piece. I have written to several collectors of the tokens but none seem to have any of them. One collector from that area said he contacted a dealer who has had them at one time.
He has promised to watch for them. He said he would track for some T.T.s I have if he has any luck at all.
Gives me some idea of what they are worth to you so I will know what to offer him if he is successful.

Sorry I don't have better news at this time but will watch out for you. Who knows when one of these items will turn up

Best of luck

Sincerely

Stanley L. Buckley

Hi Omar

Received your notes the ccc. tokens arrived okay. Am real sorry it did not please you. I tried as well as I could to describe it to you. If at any time I send you an item that isn't as you think it should be please return it and I will be more than glad to refund your money. I will do so yet on the one I just sent if you return it at once. I would rather see you pleased than sell the token.

Will keep an eye out for any other ccc.s for you Sincerely Stanley S. Buckley

Hi Mr Wahlberg

Received your letter & check for $25.00. Many thanks for the order.
The tokens are being sent to you under separate covers by insured mail. Watch for them and hope they please you. Will watch for the other items you collect at present I have three Prison tokens on hand. Here is the description of them, or better yet I will make a rubbing.

If you have any use for any of these make me an offer.

Have been interested in tokens and other exnumia for a long time. I reached retirement age last month and intend to buy sell and trade these items by mail as much as possible to keep occupied. If you have any -thats along these lines to sell or ~~know~~ anyone who does I would appreciate a chance to buy them. Price and describe first letter.

Again many thanks and good luck in your collecting.

Sincerely

Stanley L. Buckley
